INTRODUCTION

Thank you for taking a look at this resource guide, designed to help patients and families in the State of Michigan who are dealing with Huntington's Disease. This guide does not represent, nor is it fully representing HDSA, but is provided as means of connecting you with various options for support and care.

ONGOING DOCUMENT

This document is a ongoing document which means you can suggest resources that you find very helpful and other people with this disease and their caregivers might help find useful. If you have any suggestions or questions please contact our social worker using the details below:
